

Mr. Mid-Atlantic Leather (MAL)

Mid-Atlantic Leather Weekend – January 15-18, 2010

CONTEST INFORMATION

Thank you for choosing to be a part of the second largest Leather Contest in the United States. The Centaur Motorcycle Club has made every effort to address everything you need to know about participating in this Contest.

SUBMITTING THIS APPLICATION

Advance Application (preferred) by January 1, 2010.

1. Mail your signed application, including the Audio/Visual Media Release and Waiver to:

Steven Ranger, Contest Chair
Centaur MC
PO Box 77416
Washington, DC 20013

2. Email a digital photograph of yourself to contest@leatherweekend.com.
Judges will receive a copy, so it should be of good quality.

On-site Application.

1. Applications not submitted by January 1, 2010 must be submitted in-person to the Contest Coordinator at the Washington Plaza Hotel on Friday, January 15th, between 2:00 pm and 6:00 pm.
2. Provide a copy of photograph of yourself at that time.
Judges will receive a copy, so it should be of good quality. The copy will not be returned.

The Centaur MC reserves the right to limit the number of Contestants.

CONTESTANT REQUIREMENTS

The Mr. Mid-Atlantic Leather Contest is open to all gay Leathermen. Contestants must be: 1) male, 2) a resident of North America, 3) at least 21 years of age, and 4) self-identified as gay. While everyone is welcome to attend Leather Weekend events, women or heterosexual men are not accepted as Contestants.

Mr. MAL 2010 must be prepared to represent this esteemed title as a contestant in the International Mr. Leather (IML) Contest in Chicago, IL, Wednesday through Monday of Memorial Day Weekend 2011.

There is no fee to enter the Mr. Mid-Atlantic Leather Contest.

Contestants must arrive at the Washington Plaza Hotel, 10 Thomas Circle, Washington, DC no later than 6:00 pm on Friday of MAL Weekend. Any Contestant who will be arriving later than 6:00 pm on Friday must contact the Contest Coordinator prior to January 1, 2010. Contestants must attend an orientation at 7:00 pm on Friday and all official events throughout the Weekend (at least through 8:00 pm on Sunday). In addition, 1st, 2nd and 3rd place winners will be expected to remain until 2:00 am on Monday morning (to appear at the REACTION dance). Contestants are REQUIRED to be on-time for all scheduled events. Tardiness indicates a lack of commitment and is unfair to others. A Contestant who continually disrupts preparations or is persistently late may be disqualified and removed from the competition.

Due to limited space in the dressing areas, Contestants are not permitted to have an assistant or dresser backstage. Only Contestants will be permitted in the backstage area.

Special Note: Genitalia may not be exposed onstage, in public places, or in pre-judging interviews.

JUDGING CATEGORIES

- Interview & Pre-judging (Saturday) - maximum 35 points – Each Contestant will individually meet with the full panel of Judges and respond to whatever questions he is asked. This interview will take place in private (offstage) without any audience. You can select attire that you feel is appropriate, but we would suggest "Leather Casual." Judges' questions often cover knowledge of the leather community; its leaders and history; the Contestant's community service, contributions, leadership; and personal questions about the Contestant.
- Attitude and Personality (Sunday) - maximum 25 points. Each Contestant will appear on stage in the leatherwear of their choice. This category is also called Bar wear (aka what you'd normally wear out on a regular bar night). The Contestant should select their leatherwear to reflect their personality.
- Jock Strap (Sunday) - maximum 20 points. Each Contestant will appear onstage in a jock strap of his choice. This segment is not an "exotic fashion show" or "body competition," but a celebration of our leather lifestyle and will be judged as such. Your stage presence and confidence are very important. Judges are looking for how well you will represent the Centaur MC at IML and how well you present and carry yourself on stage.
- Formal Leather (Sunday) - maximum 20 points. Each Contestant will appear onstage in the formal leatherwear of their choice and will answer a question asked by the emcee. Remember that Judges will be assessing your attitude, presence, and confidence in all judged events.

JUDGING METHOD

There are seven Judges for the Contest. They are current or former titleholders and other prominent members of the community. In order to promote fairness, the Olympic Scoring System is used. In this system, the highest and lowest scores in each event are dropped and the remaining five scores are added to make a Contestant's total score for that category. The scores for each category are added together to make your total score. The Contestant with the highest total score will become Mr. Mid-Atlantic Leather 2010.

In the event of a tie of the total Olympic scores, those scores that were dropped from the Olympic total (the high and low scores) will be added back to the Olympic total and the Contestant with the highest score will become Mr. Mid-Atlantic Leather 2010. If this also results in a tie, the Head Judge will select Mr. MAL 2010 from among the tied Contestants.

Following the end of the Contest, a Contestant's scores will be provided to him upon request. On the scoring sheets provided, Judges will be identified by numbers (which will not be revealed to you and will be randomized between categories), not their names.

Judges do not necessarily look for the most handsome or beautiful face. They do not necessarily look for the most muscular or erotic body. They look for the person who best typifies their ideal Leatherman and the one who, in the Judges' opinion, can best represent the Mr. MAL title. This involves the Judges' subjective judgments of multiple factors, including each Contestant's leather image, physical appearance, attitude, personality, self-assurance, and presence.

Keep in mind that Judges will be observing Contestants both during formal Contest events and in casual situations. In other words, you should act as if you are being judged during the entire weekend!

IN THE EVENT THAT A LARGE NUMBER OF PERSONS ARE INTERESTED IN COMPETING IN THE MR. MAL CONTEST, THE CENTAUR MC RESERVES THE RIGHT TO LIMIT THE NUMBER OF CONTESTANTS AND/OR ELIMINATE SOME CONTESTANTS FROM FINAL JUDGING, BASED UPON THE PRE-JUDGING SCORES, TO ENSURE THE CONTEST CAN BE COMPLETED WITHIN THE TIME FRAME ALLOWED AT THE CONTEST SITE.

FRATERNIZATION WITH JUDGES

Contestants and Judges may and should socialize informally in public. Private meetings between Judges and Contestants during MAL Weekend are absolutely prohibited. Any sexual contact between Judges and Contestants during the Contest Weekend is absolutely prohibited. Any behavior that might create even the appearance of bias will be brought to the attention of all the Judges who will decide if the disqualification of a Judge and/or a Contestant would be prudent. To avoid accidental violation of propriety, all Contestants and Judges must display their Contestant or Judge identification badges whenever they are in public places during the weekend.

WHAT IS EXPECTED OF MR. MAL 2010

The primary expectation is that Mr. MAL 2010 will appropriately represent the title by serving as an ambassador of the Centaur MC. Mr. MAL 2010 must be prepared to represent this esteemed title as a contestant in the International Mr. Leather (IML) Contest in Chicago, IL, Wednesday through Monday of Memorial Day Weekend 2011. Centaur MC is the sole sponsor of Mr. MAL 2010 at IML. Mr. MAL 2010 may not compete in any other "leather" or "fantasy" contests during his title year.

Mr. MAL is encouraged to attend regional and national (and even international) leather events, particularly Leather Contests that are feeders to the Mr. MAL Contest, Pride festivals, Scarlet's Bake Sale, Centaur MC runs (including Olympia), other MC runs, International Ms. Leather, and American Brotherhood Weekend. Mr. MAL will conduct himself as a positive role model throughout his title year. Flagrant violation of this expectation may result in forfeiture of the title.

Mr. MAL 2010 is expected return as a for MAL Weekend 2011 to serve as a Judge and to pass the title to Mr. MAL 2011. MAL Weekend 2011 will again be held on Martin Luther King Jr. Holiday weekend in January.

Mr. MAL is encouraged to raise funds to cover his own travel expenses and other expenses incurred during their year as Mr. MAL. He is also encouraged to help with fundraising projects and/or do volunteer work for worthy causes.

SUGGESTIONS

As a Contestant, you will be busy at official events throughout the Weekend. Please do not schedule any outside activities. It is recommended that you try to arrive Thursday evening or Friday morning and leave Monday morning. This will help you get settled and feel your best.

Some Contestants will have a sponsor helping to defray some or all of their expenses. If you do not have a sponsor, you may find that even the relatively modest expense of attending MAL is a financial burden. It is recommended that you try to find a sponsor to help with your expenses. Your local bar, local leather club, or other GLBT business or organization may be interested in becoming your sponsor. Your sponsor(s) will be mentioned during the Mr. MAL Contest. It is an easy and relatively inexpensive way for a sponsor to get widespread publicity.

QUESTIONS?

If you have any questions, contact the Contest Coordinator at to contest@leatherweekend.com or Centaur MC, PO Box 77416, Washington, DC 20013.
